

Saturday, June 8, 2019
9:00am to 1:00pm
St. John's University
Rome Campus, Room 106

Symposium on Climate, Development and Social Justice

Moderated by Dr. Jeffrey Fagen, Dean and Professor of Psychology, St. John's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. St. John's University, NY, USA

Ms. Cristina Parenti, Mechanical Engineer, Rome, Italy

Re-engineering developed countries to address climate change concerns

Dr. Christopher Vogt, Professor, Chair, Dept. of Theology and Religious Studies, St. John's University, NY, USA

Ecological Conversion and Social Justice

Dr. Luca Rosi, Head of External Relations and International Affairs, National Institute of Health (ISS), Rome, Italy

Development and Structural Challenges

Rev. Dr. Nicola Riccardi, Under-Secretary, Dicastery of Integral Human Development, Vatican.

Globalizing and normalizing integral human development: the efforts of Pope Francis

Dr. Ottorino Cappelli, Professor, Link Campus University, Rome, Italy

Political discourse, environmental protection and the protection of labor: challenges to social justice in globalized economy

Dr. Pierluigi Malvasi, Professor, Director of the Postgraduate School for Environmental Studies, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Brescia, Italy

"Laudato si', climate change and education"